Guy

In my recent emails I have repeatedly asked you confirm agreement to an extension of time for determination until this Friday (11th)

Which you haven't yet done!. Could you do that please, and that gives an indication of my intention as to when I hope to be issue a decision but time is getting shorter.

Regards

Michael

The revised wording is agreed. Thank you.

How long do you think it will take to get the decision notice issued? As I mentioned previously we could really do with it this week.

Kind regards
Guy
